

Mission for Integrated Development of Horticulture (MIDH)

Type:

- Horticulture development programme.

Purpose:

- Promote sustainable horticulture crops including fruits,spices,flowers,medicinal and aromatic plants growth.
- Enhance

farm productivity and quality. • Improve robust market linkages.

Eligibility Criteria

- Eligible individual growers and farmers.
- Self-Help Groups (SHGs) and farmer clusters.
- Registered institutions and cooperatives.
- Special projects aligning state guidelines.

ELIGIBLE BENEFICIARIES VARY
BY MIDH SCHEME AND MAY INCLUDE FARMER AND FARMER
GROUPS SHG, COOPERATIVES
AND ELIGIBLE ENTITIES...

Benefits and Support

- Support for baseline horticulture growth.
- Funding for setting up quality infrastructure.

- Incentives for post-harvest value-chain steps.
- Support for original planting material nurseries and other horticulture development components as specified under the MIDH component

Step-by-Step Procedure

1. Contact the local State Horticulture Agency.
2. Obtain the official project application form.

3. Prepare a comprehensive crop or project plan.

4. Submit the form with all required records.

5. Undergo project evaluation by committee.

6. Receive formal approval and funds transfer.

This process may vary according to state and scheme

Documents and Data

- Detailed crop or infrastructure project plan.
- Verified land ownership or site details.
- Identity and formal legal entity records.

SOME MIDH SUB SCHEMES ARE

- NHM-National horticulture mission
- HMNEH-Horticulture mission for north east and himalayan states

- NBM -National bamboo mission
 - NHB -National horticulture board
 - CDB - Coconut development board
 - CIH -Central institute for horticulture
-
- Core financial statements and Declarations.

Typical SIA Questions

Q: What is MIDH?

A: A flagship scheme for holistic development of the horticulture sector.

Q: What activities are supported?

A: Plantations, nurseries, cold storage, and market distribution projects.

Q: How can cooperatives submit a project?

A: By routing an aggregated DPR through State Horticulture Agencies.

Official Source Family

- Ministry of Cooperation convergence page.
- Main MIDH operational framework portals.
- Central and State horticulture databases.