

National Social Assistance Programme

The National Social Assistance Programme (NSAP) is a centrally sponsored social assistance scheme run by the Ministry of Rural Development. It provides financial security to vulnerable households below the poverty line.

The 5 Main Sub-Schemes

1. IGNOAPS: Old age pension for BPL citizens aged 60+.
2. IGNWPS: Widow pension for BPL widows aged 40-59.
3. IGNDPS: Disability pension for severe disabilities.
4. NFBS: Lump sum family benefit on primary breadwinner's death.
5. Annapurna: 10 kg free food grains monthly for eligible seniors.

Eligibility & Criteria

Applicants must belong to a household Below the Poverty Line (BPL) and fulfill specific age and condition criteria set by individual components and state administrations.

Required Documents

Identity proof, age verification certificate, BPL household records, and active bank or post office account details for direct benefit transfers.

How to Apply

Applications should be submitted through the local or state social welfare administration, Gram Panchayat, or municipality offices following the notified official process.